

2026 3-YEAR CERTIFICATION FEES

The non-refundable processing fee for new applications and recertification is based on annual gross revenue and is divided into three (3) groups. Please identify which group and revenue range your company falls within to determine the applicable fee.

The prices listed below have been adjusted to ensure our certification is globally accessible and affordable for women business owners. If your organization is interested in certification sponsorship opportunities or would like to discuss standard rates, please click here for certification sponsorship options or contact us at wecertification@weconnectinternational.org.
